

OXFORD AND CAMBRIDGE CREWS.

438

Boat Race day comes appreciably nearer when the crews come to the Thames for final practice. ~~Under the eye of G.C. Nickalls the famous Old Blue~~ the Oxford crew are putting the polish on their early training, but as yet they seem to have some way to go ~~before they reach perfection.~~ The crew at present consists of J.L.Garton, bow --- H.M.Young No. 2 --- R.R.Stewart 3, --- A.W.Forbes 4 --- J.P.Burrough 5 --- F.A.L.Waldron 6 --- J.C.Cherry 7 --- A.B.Hodgson stroke and G.J.P.Merefield cox. ~~Waldron has been suffering from eye trouble which took him out of the crew for a time.~~

Cambridge are at Chiswick. Last year the light Blues lost to Oxford after thirteen successive victories, and the defeat gave a great fillip to towpath interest. Their coach is Mr C.W. Wise. ~~The Cambridge crew at present is~~ ^{at present they seem best} B.T.Coulton, bow --- A.M.Turner No. 2 --- A.Burrough 3 --- G.Keppel 4, J.L.Savill 5 --- T.B.Langton 6 --- A.Campbell 7 --- D.S.M.Eadie stroke and A.Twinn cox