

455

me

CONSECRATION OF NEW CATHEDRAL IN CAIRO.

The beautiful new Cathedral of All Saint's, Cairo, was consecrated by the Archbishop of York in the presence of Sir Miles Lampson, Great Britain's Ambassador and Lady Lampson. The procession, choir and lay readers, headed by Church dignitaries, made it's way to the Cathedral for the picturesque ceremony. Dr Temple, wearing his coronation cape, ^{Knuckled} ~~tapped~~ on the door with his staff, and dedicated the House of God, ~~to Egypt.~~ ~~After the consecration,~~ ~~the procession passed peacefully out of the Cathedral.~~ slightly