

ABE BAILEY AND BADEN POWELL.

459

The Windsor Castle arriving at Southampton brought from South Africa the Millionaire sportsman Sir Abe Bailey --- despite the amputation of both his legs he still has a cheery smile. He intends to see his horse Golden Sovereign run in the Derby ~~and~~ ~~with~~ ~~him~~ ~~and~~ ~~his~~ ~~other~~ ~~horses~~ ~~and~~ ~~his~~ ~~other~~ ~~horses~~. ~~So we wish him luck on the~~ ~~course~~. Another grand old man came to Britain on the ~~the~~ Llangibby Castle --- Sea scouts on the guardship Rodney signalled their chief as he came up the Solent. The news they signalled was good news ~~and~~ that may have been partly the reason why ~~the~~ 81-year-old Lord Baden Powell was able to walk down the gangway unassisted, although he had recently been very ill. The chief Scout is a wonderful example of eternal youth.

LLOYD GEORGE.

The former Prime Minister sought the aid of a water-diviner on his farm at Churt in Surrey ~~and~~ ~~was~~ ~~astonished~~ ~~at~~ ~~her~~ ~~wizardry~~. ~~and~~ ~~even~~ ~~his~~ ~~Welsh~~ ~~board~~ ~~was~~ ~~astonished~~ ~~at~~ ~~her~~ ~~wizardry~~. As you can see, Mr Lloyd George is as resourceful at home as he is in the House of Commons. So ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~, now if the Government comes out with ~~an~~ ~~idea~~ ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ ~~with~~ a new idea, he's all ready to pour cold water on it.
