

TROON.

462

Troon --- It was an international final in the British Amateur Golf Championship --- ~~American vs. Ireland.~~ ~~Here is~~ Charles Yates, the American ~~from Atlanta~~ ~~who~~ fought out the last thirty-six holes with Cecil Ewing <sup>of Ireland</sup>. There was a big gallery following to encourage the Irishman ~~but~~ and he put up a gallant fight. But Yates wore him down and finished the victor by three and two. So that's how our Amateur golf cup took a ticket across the Atlantic.

WEDDING.

Paris --- Princess Eugenie of Greece was married at the Chapel of the Invalides in the presence of representatives of many royal families. The Princess is a cousin of King George of Greece and of our own Duchess of Kent. The bridegroom is a member of one of the oldest families in Poland --- Prince Dominique Radziwill.

CHINA WAR.

China---Following a ~~lull~~ lull in the battle activities in the Far East, war flames have stretched out their tongues once more. Murderous bombings of Canton have killed and wounded many thousands. In the South Shantung Province, Chinese are mopping up after street fighting. Half a million defenders of their country advance behind a shattering barrage of hand-grenades after their victory at Taierehuang.
