

WINDSOR MARATHON.

The grounds of Windsor Castle witness the start of the famous race to London --- finishing this year in the Chiswick Stadium.

Over ninety long-distance runners entered, ^{and} ~~for the event~~ ~~an amazing number.~~ The distance is over 26 miles ~~distance.~~

It must be very thirsty work --- by crummy, they're open! ~~when you've done about twenty miles your tongue feels like a piece~~

~~of ice.~~ The trainer comes out with a sponge full of water when what you really want is a barrel full of [^] -- there's another one! It's called a marathon race because in the dawn of the world a man called Phidippides ran 150 miles to get help in the battle of Marathon. A terrific achievement --- but in those days there weren't so many pubs ~~on the way.~~ ~~to come back to 1930, the winner was~~

~~the Swedish champion, Palme.~~ ~~He completed the race with a circuit of the Stadium track and was awarded the handsome trophy by Sir ynaston Studd.~~

~~1930.~~

This year's hero was the Swedish champion, Palme;
