

WIMBLEDON.

468

Bright sunshine pleasantly warmed the precincts of Wimbledon for the start of the Tennis Championships, and as usual there was an ~~in general spectators to watch the celebrities~~ good supply of really chomped balls. Donald Budge the title holder made a few mistakes in his match against Gardar Døwer --- but the brilliant Californian didn't make the final mistake of not winning. Budge won 6 - 2, 6 - 3, 6 - 3. ~~And the~~ FOR Mrs Wills Moody and Mrs ^Mopman, G.b.News cameraman takes you ~~for a trip~~ over the heads of the ~~xxxxxx~~ spectators for a closer look at them. Mrs Moody as former champion was favourite of course --- so if you like to hold on again we'll go a little closer and watch her in action. The first set went to Mrs ^Moody 6 - 3. And she also took the second set at 6 - 4 to win.