HENLEY REGATTA.

Henley ~~Regatta~~ made a brave challenge for top marks in the school of fashion ---- almost pre-war elegance returned to this most famous of all river regattas. ~~The boats and banks were lined with a~~
On all sides there were
~~lot~~ of happy people doing themselves well --- everybody was very up-river and cold chicken. From the top of the Church tower we have one of the loveliest views of all the lovely Thames --- but we must come down and watch the racing ~~at the end of the river and Kent on the Thames.~~

Torquay Regatta looks peaceful from a distance --- but close up its peace is shattered by the roar of high-powered engines. International Motor Boat Races --- Speedboats splitting the air and water for the Duke of York's Trophy
