RHEIMS CATHEDRAL.

Rheims Cathedral has been restored. This lovely Gothic building that saw the crowning of the Dauphin in the presence of Joah of Arc 500 years ago, stands once more a glorious monument to the builders art. Monsieur Lebrun, the French President, arrived for the opening ceremony and was attended by members of the Government ~~and many guests and dignitaries~~. Mass was celebrated inside the Cathedral where many High Church dignitaries were present. Smashed by shells in the Great War, its peerless beauty was reduced to a shattered wreck. This noble Cathedral has now risen again from the ashes of ~~ruin~~ ^{and stands restored to its} ~~former greatness~~ ^{thoughts}. Many and deep ~~impressions~~ ^{thoughts} ~~will~~ have accompanied Monsieur Lebrun as he left ~~the cathedral~~ after the impressive service.

will be revived in the minds of thousands
