

LIZANA WEDDING.

London.-- At Brompton Oratory, the little Senorita of the tennis court- Anita Lizana, the Chilean champion, was married to Mr Ronald Ellis. For her wedding she put on three inch heels to her shoes, and a high Spanish comb covered with a mantilla. She looked nearly as tall as ~~the bridegroom~~ her English bridegroom.

ECLIPSE STAKES.

Sandown Park. --Large crowds attended this popular meeting- the wealthiest in the country- ~~stake money being nearly £10,000.~~

~~Several Derby horses were amongst the starters, and our camera~~
 THE DERBY FAVOURITE GOING UP TO THE STARTING GATE caught Pasch and Scottish Union. ~~They're off to~~ a good start, Pasch, ridden by Gordon Richards, restored himself to favour by winning from Fair Copy ~~by three~~ by three lengths. He will now be favourite for the Legend.

14TH JULY CELEBRATIONS.

Paris, -- the anniversary celebrations of the Fall of the Bastille included a big military parade on the Champs Elysees. This famous highway has been profusely decorated in readiness for the coming Royal visit. ~~Parading in the streets went on all day, and most of~~
~~of the night in this city of happy abandon.~~