

THE KING(S) HOMAGE.

On the second day of the Royal visit, His Majesty's first act was to pay homage at the tomb of France's unknown soldier by placing a wreath of Flanders poppies.

MAIA PLANE.

-----Within a few hours the Gaumont-British News Reel was flown by the ^{Imperial Airways} ~~pick-a-pack~~ plane to the ^{Caracas + Grenada} ~~United States~~ on the first commercial flight in history.

The Royal visit can be truly acclaimed as a symbol of everlasting friendship between two great democratic nations- France and Britain.
