

WOMEN'S TRANSPORT SERVICE.

A parade at Mytchett near Aldershot illustrates the part that woman plays in national defence. It is the Women's Transport Service, in review before the Princess Alice, Countess of Athlone. Most people imagine ^{that} this is a new service, but actually it was formed in 1909. Apart from transport, their marching is superb.

In the New Forest, some defence forces by the ~~the~~ male sex. This is the time for summer camps for territorials. Luckily they have a good cure for blisters.
