

CHINA.

China --- Japan's advance upon Hankow continues with the aid of guns and tanks. But hampering the Nipponese troops are the floods of the Yellow River. Even where the waters have not covered the earth, the ground that once was firm is now a swamp. In Hankow itself refugees have swarmed into the foreign concessions, seeking the sanctuary of international law. Residents have left for Hongkong under the protection of the Union Jack.

GOLF.

Delaware --- Paul Runyan of New York in the final of the American Professional Championship, had Sam Snead of West Virginia for his opponent. But this was not Sam's lucky day. Paul was already seven up when Sam laid him a dead stymie. Paul took a mashie-niblick to that stymie --- Blimey! So Paul ~~_____~~

LYDIA HILL.

Southampton --- ~~Chaperoned~~ returning from a holiday abroad is Miss Lydia Hill. Chaperoned by her mother, this girl ~~_____~~ has been a guest of the wealthy Sultan of Böhore. It has been reported that ~~Miss Hill~~ <sup>she</sup> is engaged to marry the Sultan; on the other hand it has also been reported that she is not. That's always news so our moving Cameraman took a picture of the lady.

she is Miss Hill in the fur.

GRAND PRIX.

Adenau --- twenty cars were starters in the Grand Prix on the Nuerburg Ring. The course for this race runs through the Hifel Mountains and this year danger was made more dangerous by the rain on the road surface. Speeds were low owing to the weather; but the winner was the British driver, ~~Richard~~ Richard Seaman.
