Forty thousand spectators packed the stands at Goshen New York for the Derby of the world of harness-racing. There was a purse of thirty eight thousand dollars for this race and ten three-year-olds went after it. Stand in front of a thundering herd with G.B. New slow motion cameraman --- watch perfect action in a cloud of dust, as they step high wide and handsome. They were so eager to begin this fight in Sydney Stadium that Arjan Das from India threw his American opponent out of the ring before he got undressed. But he came tack thirsting for ax revenge and then what a battle we saw.' The Indian is limbering up --- he's on his toes. The American is on his dignity. Now for the battle of the century --- Rudy from America is going to kill him but before he gets the chamce that Indian starts to tickle. That infuriates him. And after that the beast comes out in Rudy --- and the beast is a goat and he buts. One more but off the ropes --- but it's the wrong but. The winner receives the championship --- but it's the runner-up receives a lovely bouquet, but he can't take
