

HANKOW .

489

Air Raids --- and still more air raids --- Japan continues her grim attacks upon Hankow, Wuchang, Hanyang, Timber yards, petrol dumps, railway stations --- all these become a burnt offering at the feet of the god of war.

Death and destruction are the bitter daily fare of China -- and almost worse than death is the tragedy of parting from loved ones --- or the horror of lasting mutilation.