Ninety thousand dirt track fans crammed the stands at Wembley to see the world championship. ~~and ten~~ ~~throbbed~~ throbbing and ~~ten~~ ~~throbbed~~ gazing upon that ring of ashes where they ~~speedway~~ ~~was~~ ~~held~~ ~~for~~ ~~the~~ ~~preliminary~~ ~~rounds~~ ~~---~~ Bluey Wilkinson nearest the camera. Parade over --- ready for the start.

That's George Newton --- that was. The race is on --- the dirt flies up --- Wilkinson --- van Praag --- Milne --- Lamoreaux --- names to conjure with --- the cracks of the black arena.

Lap after lap they leap forward in the short straight and corner roaring in a cloud of sputtering cinder --- Bluey Wilkinson is away ahead on points --- in the last heat he only needed second place to win the world title --- and he won!
