The Duke of Norfolk is the Premier Duke, but now that the cares of the Coronation arrangements have slipped from his shoulders he is able to take part in less complicated functions. Littlehampton "aterworks, near the Duke(s castle at Arundel, had to be opened and they asked the Duke to oblige.

Water is often quite a problem to us in Britain, but it's nothing to the problem they have to face in Australia. They have built and are building huge dams --- holding fifteen and eighteen thousand million gallons --- but there is not enough water to fill them. The danger mark is near, so restrictions have been imposed by the Water Board. Consumption is enormous anyway, but leaking taps are a crime --- sprinklers for the ganden are forbidden --- and fountains are toplay no more.
