

TENNIS.

Great Britain went out of the Davis Cup so long ago you might think it was all forgotten --- but here is the Challenge Round --- the final between Australia and America, the holders. Budge, the American world champion settled the issue with his two victories in the singles, but Australia won the doubles, and what a fight that was! Watch these rallies --- Budge and Mako on the near side --- versus Quiest and Bromwich for ~~Australia~~ Australia. Bromwich the two-handed youngster from the Commonwealth is the domineering ^{factor} overshadowing even the great Budge --- thrilling the ~~XXXXX~~ gallery of 10,000 in this Philadelphia Tourney. ~~Australia won~~ --- but all singles matches except one had gone to America so the United States kept the Davis Cup.

Tennis fades out --- football fades in. The first big game of the season in Chicago. It's College All-Stars v. Washington Redskins, and the crowd roars. Here comes a spectacular goal for the Colleges. Watch them pass --- accurate, hand to hand, as easy as throwing a tennis ball --- ~~watch them~~ ~~over and over~~ ~~down in~~ ~~fling~~ ~~backle.~~

The result was a win for the Colleges by 28 to 16 ~~and~~ ~~that~~ ~~it~~ ~~seem~~ ~~to~~ ~~be~~ ~~that~~ ~~over~~ ~~there~~ ~~it~~ ~~struck~~ ~~summer~~ ~~lightning~~ ~~from~~ ~~a~~ ~~hundred~~ ~~flashing~~ ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ Press photographers.
