

PRINCE ARTHUR FUNERAL.

Son of the Duke of Connaught, they buried him at Windsor; and King George saluted as the cortege left the station --- marching in the slow dignity of death towards the Chapel Royal.

The King followed behind the coffin of Prince Arthur his cousin --- with him were Sir Alexander Ramsay, representing his father-in-law the Duke, and in the bearskin the Earl of Macduff, Prince Arthur's son. The came the Duke of Kent and Prince Bertil of Sweden.

~~They bore him up the steps of the Chapel Royal. He laid in the coffin of the Royal Family.~~
