

RIFLE SHOOT.

504

Ohio --- Two thousand marksmen pulled the trigger in the National Rifle Shoot at Camp Perry. [^] And it's Ladies' Day --- the female Bill Codies of 1938 prefer this ^{one} /to the kitchen range. Now a little fancy shooting --- as you see, it's a trick all done by mirrors.

WEDDING.

London --- the bride was Miss Janet Bryan at this wedding in Westminster, and the little attendants were useful as well as ornamental. The bridegroom was Mr A.N. Stamp, son of Lord Stamp the famous railway executive. The headdress of ^{the} bride ~~and~~ ^{old world} added a charming touch to the ceremony in the Henry VII Chapel of Westminster Abbey --- and ~~photographs were~~ ~~all there to photograph bride and groom and the bride and the groom's father.~~

DOGS.

Uckfield --- eleven dogs which have been shown at Cruft's and other famous shows, have been condemned to death. They were convicted of sheep-worrying and were ordered by the local magistrates to be shot. The trouble occurred early one morning when these setters got through a broken wire fence. It is reported that their owner intends to organize a petition ~~in~~ in order to save her pets.
