THAMES SAILING AND U.S. v CANADA.

This has been a year of extraordinary weather. The late winter was like summer and the summer was like late winter. So now in the intervals of autumn fog there is sunshine on the rivers and our sailing clubs make the most of it. Summer regatta, followed by ~~xxxxxxxx~~ crumpets for tea ~~_____~~

America too has given us a yaghting picture. Off Boston, the United States and Canada held a schooner race --- an international classic. Thirty-six miles of sailing, with skill at the helm and ~~the~~ luck of the sea at the masthead. The two ships are the Canadian Bluenose and America's Gertrude L. Thebaud, It was the American schooner that won -- ~~_____~~.
