LORD MAYOR'S SHOW.

Another year has passed. We're all one year older and possibly even wiser..... but anyhow, here's another Lord Mayor's Show. ~~Them~~ of the show this year is physical fitness --- and so we watch a mile-long procession of healthy and hearty youth, walking and fencing and rowing and dancing --- all in the appropriate costume. After all that exercise --- walking and rowing and dancing and fencing it is a pleasure for the eye to alight on one who is merely sitting.

The procession through the city nears the Law Courts, with a flare of trumpets and cheers from the crowd. Some of the tableaux make you feel a relief that they pass the places where you get accident insurance. So to the Court of Justice to be sworn in for 1938 and 9 --- the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor of London, Alderman Sir Frank Bowater.
