

JEWISH REFUGEES.

Britain --- There has been a grand response to Earl Baldwin's appeal for funds to assist refugees from Germany. But so great is the need that even the generosity of those who have already contributed is not sufficient. One point that is not generally realised is that this fund is not solely for Jewish refugees. Many non-Aryan Christians have found themselves in desperate need of a helping hand.

BOXER v WRESTLER.

London --- Bombardier Billy Wells, former British Heavyweight champion, came out of his retirement at the age of fifty-one for a bout with Chick Knight of America. Bombardier Wells was to box, Chick Knight was to wrestle. The bout was not a success --- the wrestler failed to find a hold and started hitting and the Bombardier won on a foul.

HENLEY REGATTA.

Australia --- these are pictures of Henley Regatta --- but it's Henley-on-Yarra, not Henley-on-Thames. For it's summer time in Melbourne and the Carnival spirit is over the peaceful river. They do a little racing, but the display's the thing.

DUBLIN WEDDING.

Dublin --- at the Protestant Cathedral Miss Patricia Kennedy of County Kildare was married to Mr Dennis McGillicuddy, son of the McGillicuddy of the Reeks. There were twenty-two bridesmaids, one for each year of the bride's age. A huge crowd busied and pushed outside the Cathedral to catch a glimpse of the most spectacular wedding Dublin has seen for many a day.
