

PERCY HUNT NEW YEAR MEET.

524

Once again a New Year has dawned, and once again our cameraman called in at Alnwick for the annual meet of the Percy Hunt. As usual there was a large field, including many of the younger members. The pack moved off with the Duke of Northumberland as one of the mounted followers. Many enthusiasts, on foot and on bicycles, followed this picturesque hunt as it started off away for the first run of the year.

RANGERS V CELTIC.

A record crowd of 120,000 came to Ibrox Park to see the match between Glasgow Rangers and their close rivals, Celtic. Celtic are the team in stripes. Play was fast on both sides, the bulk of the pressing being done by Rangers, <sup>who</sup> ~~but they~~ were met by a determined and resolute <sup>opponent</sup> ~~Celtic defence~~. The game was a battle royal between Rangers attack, and Celtic defence. Excitement rose to fever heat in a game that gave a thrill a minute. Two of Scotland's best known teams pitted against each other in a grim struggle for goals. See Kinnear score with a ball that curled away to enter the goal at the far post. Rangers ran out ~~winners~~ winners, by 2-1.
