

AIR OBSERVERS.

527

They call them Direct Entry Air Observers --- Desford is one of six training instruction schools available to young men in civil life who wish to become members of the Royal Air Force. The scheme has been adopted to meet the rapid expansion of squadrons, arising out of the expansion of the Royal Air Force itself.

~~... ..~~
~~... ..~~
~~... ..~~

And here's a civil flight --- pioneer wings over the mightiest mountain range in Peru. Our cameraman gives you pictures of surpassing loveliness --- this is the first film ever made above the highest peak in the Andes. Gossamer cloud in a land of eternal snow.