

PUCKERIDGE.

528

Our cameraman attended a meet of the Puckeridge at Bishop's Stortford, and had a most enjoyable run with the hounds. The hunt met at the hospital --- so handy in case the fox got hurt.

The hunt moves off, with our perspiring cameraman in hot pursuit.

A lovely hunting morning --- and the field cantering over the crisp turf takes in great draughts of country air..... ~~xxxxxxxxxx~~
any left over goes to our perspiring
~~as much as is not being used by our perspiring cameraman.~~

~~Even a sign to a check~~ --- they've lost the scent --- when they find it they'd better <sup>pour it over</sup> ~~give it to~~ our perspiring cameraman. No sign of the fox --- our cameraman has ~~gone to earth~~ --- ~~lost~~ his hunting-boots
----- the fox has gone to earth ----- That's not a bad idea!
