

INVESTITURE.

136

Buckingham Palace ---- His Majesty the King held an investiture at which a variety of deserving citizens were decorated. Here is ^{Brigadier General Sir William & James Pasnow.} Rear Admiral Woodhouse, Regimental-Quarter-Master Sergeant Kingham -- Aircraftman Jones decorated for lifesaving -- Lt Col. Bower -- and Miss Florence Horsbrugh, M.P. Several policemen were among those whom the king chose to honour --- and the young son of P.C. Keen got a thrill from father's medal for gallantry.

KING GUSTAV.

Cannes --- King Gustav of Sweden is once again a familiar figure in the tennis tournament. At the age of eighty-three the tall monarch displays astonishing agility in his partnership with the famous Madame Mathieu. May you and I be able to hop about with similar grace at the same age.

KING CHRISTIAN.

Cannes --- Training for the royal regatta here is another royal sportsman on the Blue Coast. King Christian of Denmark is at the tiller of his yacht practising for the race in the 8-metre class. King Christian is an ardent handler of white sails in a fair breeze.
