

TANKER.

Run aground on a rocky reef off Block Island near New York the oil tanker Lightburne --- with a crew of thirty six and a cargo of 72,000 barrels of petrol and kerosene. The hull is breaking up --- her seams split open; ~~you'll~~ ^{you'll} see the crew on deck preparing to leave the stricken vessel. The crew came safely ashore ~~and~~ [^] and then the ultimate tragedy of the sea overtook the Lightburne. Fire broke out; oil-fed flames ran hungrily along her decks as she lay half-submerged. ~~Only~~ ^{Only} a shift in the wind prevented a devastating explosion --- ~~flaming~~ ^{flaming} finale to a drama of the shipping highways.

Drauso —

Spain — 100,000 troops took part in a march part of ~~independent~~ ^{to} ~~the~~ ^{the} in our out army in Barcelona — Navarrese & Italian Legionaries ~~penning~~ ^{penning} before General Drauso a ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~valley~~ ^{valley} of the ~~27~~ ²⁷ Fall.

at Tarazona we see the general in unfamiliar guise — ~~going~~ ^{going} aboard his warship Canarias is — Admiral Drauso.