

550
KING GHAZI.

King Ghazi of Iraq was fatally injured when his car which he himself was driving, struck an electric light standard near the Palace in Bagdad. Less than a week before this unhappy occurrence His Majesty performed the opening ceremony of the Kut ^{which} Barrage. ~~The barrage~~ is a dam across the Tigris for purposes of irrigation. King Ghazi was educated in England and he was only twenty-seven years old. He is succeeded by his three-year-old son, Emir Feisal.