

GREEK NATIONAL HOLIDAY. 53.0

Almost every parade to-day is of a warlike character ---

~~and this is the case in Greece in general. It is the National Holiday~~

~~and~~ King George II took the salute at a review of his troops in Athens. The crack regiment of the Evzones played a p prominent part in the review in their distinctive uniforms.

Since the days of ancient Greece times and manners have changed --- life has become much less picturesque. Tanks and the modern armaments ~~armaments~~ look much the same in any country --- ~~the~~

~~rest of the bright uniforms, the average army of to-day is as~~ ~~well as the general public.~~
