

IDEAL HOME EXHIBITION.

London --- at Earl's Court the Ideal Home Exhibition-is once again engaging the attention of the domestically-minded.
An interesting feature this year is the section devoted to replicas of H.M.S Repulse interiors. Part of the warship was altered to accommodate the king and Queen for their tour to Canada, ^{but} ~~although~~ the fighting efficiency of the Repulse was in no way impaired.

KING GHAZI

Iraq --- a motor-car accident caused the death of young King Ghazi in Bagdad. And in the burning heat of an eastern capital, a funeral procession made its way from the Royal Palace to the Royal Mausoleum. King Ghazi was buried by the side of his father. His son, three-year-old Feisal is king in his stead, under the Regency of ~~his~~ the late king 's uncle and brother.

PRINCE OF IRAN.

Egypt --- a happy journey, to Iran. The Prince of Iran, and his bride Princess Fawzia of Egypt sailed for their future home accompanied by the bride's mother. An enthusiastic crowd bade them God Speed as they left Port Said.

GABLE - LOMBARD.

California --- and a wedding in the west. Clark Gable and Carole Lombard returned from Kingman, Arizona as Mr and Mrs Clark Gable, ^{as soon as it is clear that he's wonderful.} This news means a good many broken hearts all over the world --- but stick to the ^{man} ~~stick~~ you've got, girls -- even if he has got flat feet.
