

TWINS.

554

Twins from all parts of New York held their first convention at the Ziegfeld Theatre, and our cameraman was kept busy sorting out which was which. Here are a pair of coloured twins, - Paul and Percy Parker. And here the prettiest ever. - Irene and Florence Raab. Then four sets of strapping girls. In the male section. Alfred and Navis Nevins. - Not neck and neck, but nose and nose with red hair and freckles that lots might envy. Lastly the long and short of the whole story, -

Amado Hernandez on the left of the picture, holding Ralphie Blanco, and Ralph Hernandez holding Anthony. The eldest is 38, the youngest but 5 months.

MOTOR-CYCLE RACE NEAR HANOVER.

At Eilenriede, on the picturesque outskirts of Hanover, they held the opening meeting of this year's sporting events. It was the international motor-cycle rally which took place on traditional lines. Eölenriede is a difficult course at the best of times, and rain did not improve it. Speed aces boared over the zigzag course, and it was a marvel that anyone kept upright on the wet surface. Sometimes they didn't, and it looked rather ticklish for the large crowd of spectators. Lap after lap these ace riders covered, each time with increasing speed, and daredevil risks. In the 350 c.c. class, rider Fleischmann led from the start. In 1 hr, 14 mins, 47.2 secs, and an average speed of 115.6 kilometres an hour, this intrepid king of the track made the best time of the day. And he also won the event, thus taking the title of Eilenriede champion, and a much-coveted prize.
