

WUTHERING HEIGHTS PREMIERE.

A fashionable company thronged to the Gaiety, Haymarket, for the European premiere of Wuthering Heights, Emily Brontë's famous novel. Here are David Ostrer and Mrs Ostrer, Mr and Mrs Arthur Jarratt, Then the American Ambassador and Mrs Kennedy and Mr Alexander Korda, the well-known British film producer. Here also is lovely Merle Oberon, who plays the part of Cathy Earnshaw in the picture. The occasion was notable for the personal appearance of Mr James Roosevelt, son of the President of the United States. Mr Roosevelt was introduced to the microphone by Miss Lorimer. Then Mr Roosevelt introduced Merle Oberon and Mrs Kennedy. It was a brilliant evening, an epoch-making occasion in the presentation on the screen of a world-famous historical story.