

557

WEDDING OF LADY DIANA ~~PERCY~~ PERCY AT WESTMINSTER ABBEY.

A society wedding at Westminster Abbey made a brilliant opening to the London season, though the weather was anything but brilliant. Princess ~~Victoria~~ Helena Victoria was present at the ceremony, at which the Archbishop of Canterbury officiated. Amongst the distinguished guests at the Abbey were Mr George Arliss, ~~complete with top hat and monocle,~~ and his wife. ^The bride was Lady Diana Percy, the 22 year old younger daughter of the Duchess of Northumberland. ~~She~~ wore a simple dress of silver, and from her headdress fell the historic veil originally owned by the famous Duchess of Richmond, of Waterloo days. Lady Diana married Viscount Brackley, son and heir of the Earl and Countess of Ellesmere. There were 13 bridesmaids, one of ~~which~~ <sup>whom</sup> was a sister of the bridegroom.