

IRISH BALLROOM CHAMPIONSHIPS.

 Rhythm on the floor,- and it's good rhythm too. In the finals of the Irish Amateur Open Championships at the Metropole ballroom, ^{Dublin,} Irish boys and girls prove that they have mastered rhythm in dancing. Watch them glide gracefully ~~xxxxxx~~ over the ground, each couple trying its hardest to impress the critical judges. ~~This championship xxxxxx~~
 The winners will represent Ireland in the British Amateur Championships to be held this month at Blackpool.
 Miss Josephine Bradley, and Mr Frank Ford, both well-known in London ballrooms, gave a masterly demonstration of how it should be done, so why not take a tip from them?
