

In the troopship Dilwara, ~~led by~~ <sup>the</sup> ~~British~~ <sup>Green</sup> ~~Regt.~~ <sup>Howards</sup>, returned to Solom from Palestine, a soldier's life is 560
RETURN FROM PALESTINE. one troop after another

~~In the troopship Dilwara, two battalions have returned from to Southampton after strenuous days in one of the world's trouble-centres. Home from Palestine, the 1st Battalion the Border Regiment and the 1st Battalion the Green Howards. The detachment included a number of sick cases and also a number of officers and men who had been decorated,~~ among the latter

Lance Corporal Peacock
~~history, 2 Of all the troops that fall to the British Army, looking after Palestine may be counted among the most difficult, because it requires both firmness and tact, and it's hard to be tolerant when you're not being shot at. Among those who received decorations was Lance Corporal Peacock, who reluctantly said a few words about his action.~~

185
Civilian arrivals at Southampton included Earl and Countess Baldwin. The former Premier has been visiting Canada and the United States. <sup>a</sup> And ~~another~~ visitor returning to England was Paul Lukas, the film star.

St Katharine's Dock in London sees the return of the Royal Research Ship Discovery, after twenty months of exploration.

She has just completed her fifth commission in the Antarctic. Among other investigations, her crew of sailors and scientists have been studying the development of whale food. And they've brought back some pets. ~~As a result~~ they've covered about 100,000 miles --- and even Willie gets about.