

PRINCE PAUL OF YUGOSLAVIA IN ROME. 562

2

Arriving in Rome on their visit of state, Prince Paul, Regent of Yugoslavia and Princess Olga of Greece, his wife, were received by the King and Queen of Italy. With splendid pomp befitting the important occasion, the Royal visitors were escorted to the Quirinal, the official home of Italy's King and Queen. From the balcony of the Quirinal, the King and Queen and their Yugoslavian guests answered the cheers of the loyal citizens below. Then Prince Paul placed a wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

MAURETANIA.

Workmen were busy at the fitting out basin in the Birkenhead yard of Cammel ~~and~~ Laird, ^{on} ~~the~~ the 34,000 ton Cunard White Star liner Mauretania, ~~was about to enter the Mersey.~~ These pictures show you the gigantic hull of this ^{debut} ~~new~~ ^{sea} ~~queen~~ of the Atlantic, with her huge propellers ready to be examined. ~~The underwater parts of her great hull will be cleaned before they receive a coat of paint.~~ And so this new lady with an old-fashioned name nosed her way ^{and} through rain and mist ~~to the accompaniment of a~~ smudgy ^{of} smoke from the many attendant tugs around her. When she has received her finishing touches, she will undergo her trials off the West coast of Scotland. So here's luck to this latest greyhound of the ocean. May she have a long life of success across the wide Atlantic.
