

TATTOO REHEARSAL .

566 N.Y. Wald, Fair

Summer days bring us once again the spectacle of the Aldershot Tattoo; in the great Rushmoor Arena thousands of ~~effie~~ troops of the Aldershot Command play their part in a great pageant --- a master picture painted with a Gargantuan brush. Britain's defenders of the days gone by are marching again; the scene depicts the arrival of Queen Elizabeth at ~~Tilbury~~

And spectacle bridges a leap ~~in~~ through time ---- from the romantic past to the march of the massed bands of the present.

The bands swing forward, perfect in rhythm and step --- except for the mascot of the Welsh Fusiliers But you can't explain things to a goat
