MOLOTOV.

Russia --- our Roving Cameraman sends this week, pictures of an address by M. Molotov, Soviet Premier and Foreign Commissar, responsible to Stalin for the negotiations with Britain. No result has been announced after three months of negotiations between the two ~~countries~~ countries

JOFFRE.

Paris --- France paid renewed homage to Marshal Joffre when a statue was unveiled on the Esplanade of the Military School. President Lebrun and representatives of the Army, Navy and Air Force honoured the little Frenchman who will always be remembered as the hero of the Marne.

BATHING BEAUTIES.

France --- a bathing parade on the Bois de Boulogne, under the auspices of the famous Racing Club de France. So far in Britain it has been mostly a fur-coat summer; ~~this~~ this is just to remind you that girls will be girls when the sun comes out. Our Roving Cameraman went to enormous trouble to get some unusual angles on this story for us --- Archie, ~~some~~ what are you doing?

FOOTBALL.

South Africa --- Southern Transvaal broke a twenty-year spell of defeats when they won their soccer match against England in Johannesburg. Twenty-five thousand fans saw the home side win by one goal to nil. But the English side turned the tables a fortnight later by winning the Johannes
