Crowds at Sandown to watch the racing in the Eclipse Meeting included the Emir of Katsina and his two sons. And half society seemed to be there too, attracted by the fact that Blue Peter was running. For the winner of the Derby and the Guinness is proving himself one of the very great among horses.

They're off --- and Lord Roseberry's Derby winner starts at the terrific price of 7 - 2 on. ~~His~~ His stable-companion Challenge made the running at the start, and the ~~favoured~~ favourite ran just the race he wanted to.

Near the finish Challenge had dropped back and Blue Peter took over the lead, with Glen Loan second. The winner has already collected over £30,000 in stake money. If he can win the St. Leger, <sup>too,</sup> he'll be ~~winning~~ doing all ~~right~~ right.
