London,--- Madame Bleriot, the pioneer airman's widow and her son came over <sup>for the</sup> to commemorate <sup>the</sup> the 30th anniversary of the first flight across the English Channel. Here are exclusive pictures of the famous aviator and his equally famous plane crossing from France to England <sup>on 25 June 1909, 30 yrs ago,</sup> ~~to commemorate this historic event,~~ 240 British bombers ~~with a crew of 1000 men~~ <sup>over France,</sup> took part in mock battles with French warplanes ~~over France.~~ <sup>demonstrating</sup> ~~one more demonstration of the air supremacy of two great democracies-- France and Britain.~~

TEST MATCH.

Manchester,-- The 2nd Test Match between England and the West Indies continued at Old Trafford. Paynter scored 9 runs ~~and~~ Then Hammond at 62 was stumped. The tea interval on the last day and <sup>England</sup> Hammond declared leading by 159. The West Indies had <sup>70 runs</sup> 70 runs in which to <sup>bat.</sup> take the lead, but <sup>with time was too short & they scored</sup> failed to do so, scoring only 43 for 4. Thus the 2nd Test ended in a draw.

BERNARD SHAW.

London,--- Once we caught the great <sup>Bernard</sup> Shaw on the hop. On his 83rd birthday, <sup>we</sup> tried to catch him again, and this is what he said;--
