

582

ROYAL CHILDREN IN KENT FOR HOLIDAY.

 Off for the holidays- the Duke and Duchess ^{of} Kent believe in sea air for their children. So here is the cottage Prince Edward and Princess Alexandra will make their home for the next few weeks. It's called Kay's Bluff, an enchanting white ^{court-} ^{-front} ~~stone~~ house standing at the foot of the high cliffs that stretch from Dover eastwards to St Margarets Bay. The sea is almost at the door. Gaumont-British News shows you these exclusive pictures of the little Prince ^{and} ~~and~~ Princess as they clamber about over the rocks and pools, far from the madding crowd, where ^{enjoying} ~~they can enjoy~~ themselves the livelong day to their hearts content.