

597

BRITAIN'S POWER STILL GROWS. (2)

~~And it may be that some of the locusts will be glad to see them go there is been a drought.~~

^a
~~Another~~ sea story comes to hand with the departure of survivors of the torpedoed liner Athenia --- the American ship Orizaba called ~~xxxxxxx~~ to take them home --- and here's wishing them better luck second time ~~del~~

Back to the land --- another glimpse of activity somewhere in England. The army of to-day is very popular --- and every woman knows that even in the tanks an army still marches on its stomach ~~del~~

Over to Paris --- The gay city is still gay, despite the war; An air raid warning finds the French capital well prepared. The alarm was heard in the small hours of the morning, and although the "all clear" was not given until three hours later, no signs of the ~~del~~ raiders were seen. It was reported that they were driven back ~~del~~

Paris takes it all very calmly --- and it's very difficult for a Parisienne to be calm when called out of bed just before dawn. ~~del~~

Now for a long hop --- to America --- Uncle Sam never lets up on his arms for defence. All along the Pacific coast the Air Force is in constant training, and constant readiness ~~del~~

Machine guns all set --- America's battleplanes are fully prepared if the need for them should arise ~~del~~