~~wherein the exchange of information is being made~~

As a change from battle dress, there were kilts on parade when the Envoys of the Empire visited this training ground for British Troops. The Dominion Ministers, in England to discuss co-operation in the Empire's war effort, were received by Lt. Gen. Broad. ^{They} ~~the~~ ~~representatives~~ included representatives of ~~the~~ Canada, Australia, New Zealand South Africa and India. They were shown many sides of the training of the British military machine. Bren guns and other machine guns have raised the fire power of the army to fantastic heights.

And then the tanks --- Hundreds of these speedy travelling fortresses on parade before the representatives of the great Commonwealth of Nations. An Empire welded together ~~with~~ the ~~single~~ purpose of victory for freedom.
