Here is a spectacular scene in a London street --- but it's all done in the cause of A.R.P. preparedness. A Nazi plane brought down in flames and its crew captured. It was all very realistic, until the end when the hoses got too near the victims.

GOODS TRAIN SMASH ✓

This accident near Edinburgh occurred when an engine without a driver ran away and crashed into a shunting engine. But it's an ill wind that blows nobody good. All the kids from miles around came and gathered a harvest of potatoes, spilled all over the line in the crash.

GAS BUS. ✓

Here is one of the first of the new gas buses which will probably become a familiar sight in the streets of London. It's a producer gas unit to run as a substitute for a petrol engine --- and it's introduced by Mr Geoffrey Lloyd, Secretary for Mines. MUSSOLINI. ✓

The seventeenth anniversary of the Fascist Revolution in Italy was marked by the opening of another new town on the Pontine Marshes..... Pomezia. Signor Mussolini attended the ceremony --- and he tasted ~~the grape~~ a grape from the land which was formerly fever-ridden swamp. To-day 100,000 people inhabit this new province restored to Rome by the arts of peace.
