

✓ WEDDING.

✓ 615

Another military wedding in London-----Lt. James Craig, and his bride Miss Fiona Tatchell. The bride is daughter of a London specialist and the groom is son of Lord Craigavon, the Prime Minister of Northern Ireland.

✓ BALLOON.

One of the most wonderful things about Britain's Balloon Barrage is the good behaviour of the balloons. But here is one that disgraced herself..... in a high wind she came over temperamental. The crew chased her and bullied her but she took no notice; she wanted to dance the Booms-a-Daisy. As they tried to get the balloon safely back to earth our cameraman on the spot recorded everything they did. Otherwise they might have been tempted to puncture the darn thing.

✓ CHINESE FASHIONS.

The land of China still endures the hardship and misfortune of war after many months --- but the spirit of China's young womanhood is unbreakable. This Oriental fashion show proves, if proof were needed, that grace and dignity are qualities that endure.

✓ 2,000 HEAD OF CATTLE.

With the approach of hard winter, Texas cattlemen round up their charges and move them on to the Gulf of Mexico. The first herd consisted of 2,000 head of cattle and they move at the rate of about 30 miles a day. Altogether over 90,000 are going to be moved --- the largest herd ever concentrated in one area. It's like the Nazis on somebody's frontier.
