

✓ ✓ 621
BIRD SANCTUARY.
-----

In California there is a bird sanctuary on the bed of a dry lake where thousands of ducks and geese can live in safety- free of the fear of being shot at. It's such a good idea: perhaps in a few hundred years' time there might be a place like that for men and women.

U.S. ANTI-AIRCRAFT GUNS. ✓
-----

4
At Fort Story, Virginia Uncle Sam's coast artillery is testing ~~the new~~ anti-aircraft guns- ~~Watch these 37 mm automatics~~ ~~how they can shoot to the sky. The automatics are firing~~ ~~at the mark.~~ ~~The~~ ~~50~~ calibre ~~guns~~ come into action- and they fire a 100 shells a minute. Down come the targets riddled with the hits of expert marksmen.

BYRD ANTARCTIC EXPEDITION. ✓
-----

The Bear of Oakland- second ship of the Byrd Antarctic Expedition- prepares to set sail, sled dogs and all, for the South Pole. It looks like a bit of the Antarctic as they start. This picture shows you Boston Harbour where this gallant ship ~~starts~~ <sup>begins</sup> its long voyage South. ~~Admiral Byrd will fly to join the ex-~~ ~~pedition at Panama.~~ Then on to the South Polar ice cap.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS. ✓
-----

It is with great regret that we record the death of Douglas Fairbanks at the age of 56, at his Hollywood home. Of recent years his screen appearances had been rare, but Douglas Fairbanks will always be remembered as one of the most vital personalities of the cinema.