

637
JOE LOUIS.

Joe Louis is back in the news --- with a new fight on hand. The Brown Bomber seems to have a ninety-nine year lease on the heavy-weight title. But he's always ready to defend it, and the latest challenger is Arturo Godoy from Chile. Arturo is not unlike Maxie Baer. Apart from that advantage he 's the first challenger from South America since Luis Firpo.

DAMAGED PIER.

Somewhere on the east coast another pier has been damaged --- this time by a mine. The only good thing about it is that the pier had been closed to the public since the war began, and nobody was injured. But it certainly made a mess of the pier.

WRECK OF THE "CHARLES."

Another neutral ship in trouble off the north-east coast of Britain --- the Belgian merchantman "Charles."...Held fast on the rocks in stormy weather, Six of the crew lost their lives! The tragedy extended when two of the lifeboat crew, putting out to save them, were also lost.

OLD DRYDOCKS.

In Portland, Oregon, they have^a two hundred thousand dollar reconstruction on hand. The old drydocks are making room for new ones which will accommodate larger ships. In the meantime, they're having fun pushing 200-ton docks in the water to smash up.