Under the burning Egyptian sun the camp has been prepared for them; and on the day of their arrival they were greeted by a traveller from Britain. The Secretary of State for the Dominions had flown from Britain to welcome the boys to Egypt --- and now he comes aboard...Mr Anthony Mier

This is the Second Australian Imperial Force --- if there's any trouble in the East they look as though they'll take care of it nicely.

Fr Eden gave them a welcoming message, and the British Ambassado Sir Miles Lampson, read a message from the Aing

Now New Zealand. Natives were putting the finishing touches to their camp as the convoy came in Most of them had never before left New Zealand --- but they came because they have made the Empire's cause their own. Insthissmanniningume Thes year is the contenary of New Zealand's kinship with Britain; and think the bonds that link them with this Empire are stronger to-day than ever, much to the disappointment of the Nazis. They didn't expect that.

ANZACS IN EGYPT. (2)

Once again Mr Eden and the British Ambassador had words of welcome. And once again --- what a grand lot of boys they look!

They disembarked to the plaintive notes of the pipes --- and Egypt came over all Section
