

656

SOCCKER AT WEMBLEY.

England v Wales at the home of the Cup Final. A distinguished spectator was the Earl of Athlone, who has ^{recently} been appointed Governor-General of Canada. His Royal Highness shook hands with the two teams
Wales first

England ~~lost~~ ^{won} the tãss and Wales kicked off and went into a strong attack. It was nearly a goal for Wales, but the rose was not excited. Then England made a determined raid on the Welsh goal.

It was saved --- and cleared - and just befofe half time Wales got a goal through Bryn Jones

Wales 1 -- England nil --- and that was the final score. But don't go yet in case you miss a bit