

PIONEERS.

They asked for recruits for the Auxiliary Military Pioneer Corps --- and when they opened up outside the London Mansion House they were overwhelmed in the rush. Men/~~men~~<sup>are</sup> wanted between the ages of thirty and fifty --- and ~~the~~ one of the first was a veteran of South Africa.... ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ Ready, like President Roosevelt, to serve a third term. Pioneers have been called the Minesweepers of the Army; they remove obstacles and make free movement possible

BABY GADGET.

Here's the latest invention from Chicago --- and it's nothing to do with the war. It fact it isn't much to do with anything

Round and round he goes --- ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ and he doesn't get any farther.--- ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ It's just teaching the boy to put his feet on the mantelpiece

COMMANDER BUZZARD.

Home on leave after <sup>his</sup> ship was sunk --- Commander Buzzard of the destroyer Gurkha. Bombs from a German plane sent the Gurkha down, but she went down fighting.... With decks awash she ~~fixed~~ shot down her attacker. At home Master Buzzard also keeps the flag flying
